□ Music, drama, and spiritual awakening all play an important part in the life of any Noll student. A whirl of events began with the Homecoming festivities, followed by a decisive night in the lives of the students as they attended College Night or Career Night. Schedules were again hectic as practice for the Senior Play began. Retreat brought the students to a closer relationship with their Creator. The 1963 school year was brought to an end at the Prom when rowdy boys were transformed into handsome and polite gentlemen, and giggly girls into gracious and charming young ladies ■

*The most
night of the year.*

□ Anything but perfect for the Junior-Senior Prom—the night of May 10, 1963 arrived chilly and cloudy. But this did not cool the enthusiasm of the happy couples who arrived at St. Thomas More Hall in Munster: the boys exceptionally handsome in their tuxedos and the girls radiantly beautiful in their lovely formals.

Spring-like decorations of trees and garden scenes revealed the theme "Fountain of Dreams." As King Dave Burdelak and Queen Bev Wohadlo led the Grand Mary Kay Phillips and Tom Owen gaze dreamily into the wishing well during the exciting evening.

Looking forward to a wonderful evening, Barbara Ben and her escort Leo Bonaventura receive their bids for the Prom.

March many proud parents watched their son or daughter pass by.

Dinner at Teibel's Restaurant followed the dance, with entertainment provided for by a magician and a combo.

It seemed that the whole evening had been one wonderful dream as the tired couples returned home in the early hours of the morning, the strains of the delightful music of the Pat DeMure Orchestra still lingering ■

Admiring the decorations at the fountain are Elonka Kozare and Jerry Kalinowski

Thoroughly enraptured with the music of the Pat DeMure Orchestra are Lois Vernocy and Bob Kucinski.

Bev Wohadlo and Dave Burdelak were chosen as King and Queen of the '63 Prom.

"I've been waiting for this all morning," seems to be the expression on Margie Neff's face, with Carol Roth evidently thinking the same thing.

Many uses were found for the '63 Marquette on the senior trip to the Dunes.

Senior Week for the graduates of 1963 began on Monday, May 27, as the seniors struggled through their final exams. On May 28, the last scholastic effort over, they enjoyed fried chicken and barbecues at the Class Picnic at the Indiana Dunes. Threatening rain did not dampen their spirits as they raced, danced, sang, played ball, played cards—"one last time together."

At 9:30 A.M. on Wednesday, May 29, the gay frivolity gave way to solemnity as the seniors filed into St. Joseph's Church for the celebration of the Baccalaureate Mass. After Mass, the seniors and their parents attended a Communion Breakfast at St. Stanislaus Hall. The air of solemnity continued on Friday when the Senior Class Holy Hour was held at St. John the Baptist Church. After the Holy Hour, the seniors read the class will and class prophecies at the Class Night ceremonies in the Marian Auditorium; then they were formally inducted into the Bishop Noll Alumni Association.

At 5:00 P.M. on Saturday, June 1, the 287 seniors filed into the Civic Center for Commencement Exercises. For them, the activities of Senior Week were at an end; so, too, were the activities of four wonderful years at Bishop Noll ■

At 5:00 P.M. on Saturday, June 1, the 287 members of the Senior Class of 1963 assembled for the last time. Their feet seemed suddenly unsure, their hands slightly unsteady, but their heads were held high and proud under their stiff mortarboards as they filed into the Hammond Civic Center for Commencement.

Valedictorian Vicki Koczwar and Salutatorian Tom Burke reviewed the four precious years at Bishop Noll and previewed the years to come; the Most Reverend Andrew G. Grutka congratulated the graduates on the four years which had made them strong in body, mind, heart, and soul.

The graduates then received their long-awaited diplomas from Brother I. Conrad, F.S.C. They looked to the world with eagerness; the world looked to them with hope ■

An old tradition-- we won!

Homecoming Queen candidates and escorts are Camille Raczkowski, Mike Liscinsky, Jane Ferro, Fred Adamczyk, Ann Fajman, Bob Weber, Dolores Bach, and Ken Alsager.

Mike McGill, star fullback, is crowned "Mr. Touchdown."

□ This year, every class had an individual responsibility in making Homecoming 1963 a project of the entire student body. Seniors took charge of the bids, the skit, and the queen's float. Juniors organized the dance, while sophomores and freshmen took care of publicity and refreshments. Louie Musielak and Donna Dankovis were co-chairmen.

On Friday, the most exciting event of the evening was our victory over Horace Mann, 19-14. During halftime ceremonies, Jane Ferro was crowned the 1963 Homecoming Queen by the 1962 Queen, Bev Wohadlo. Runners-up were Dolores Bach, Pat DeNiro, Ann Fajman, and Camille Raczkowski.

Following the game, the dance, "Kickoff Kapers," was held in the Bishop Noll Ballroom, where couples danced to the music of the Pat DeMure Orchestra. The Grand March was led by Queen Jane Ferro and "Mr. Touchdown," Mike McGill ■

Judie Kudla, Cyndee Novek, Ellen Rosta, Marlene Hodgson, Tina Hoffman, and Sue Keilman support the Warriors on the Senior float in the Homecoming parade.

Enjoying the music of the Pat DeMure Orchestra in the gaily decorated Noll Ballroom are Nancy Popovich and Tony Jayme.

College-Career Nights offer look into future.

□ Annually the Student Council, along with the Guidance Office, sponsors two evenings during which junior and senior students have the opportunity to become acquainted with college and occupational careers.

On October twenty-third College Night was held in order to familiarize college-bound students and their parents with the schools of higher learning which were represented. Prospective students learned of the entrance requirements, courses of study, scholarship opportunities, and costs of their favorite colleges.

Career Night, December eleventh, gave interested students the opportunity to acquaint themselves with the occupational possibilities open to them. Snow and sleet were the variable factors that prevented the anticipated success of the evening, but another Career Night was scheduled for April.

Both of these informative evenings were high spots in the scheduled activities for upperclassmen ■

Faculty elbows way to victory.

□ Even with youth on its side the power-packed Monogram Club failed to overcome the natural superiority of the faculty team. The faculty, with an 8-0 record in the series, virtually ran the lettermen off the fieldhouse floor. 58-50 was the final score.

Composed of such greats as Mr. John Dermody, Mr. George Wilson, Mr. Bob Bradtke, Brothers William and Amedy, Mr. Steve Napierala, Father Mantel, Mr. Tom Biel, and Mr. Ron Luketic, the faculty had to use only a minimum of elbowing to get the victory. Special mention must go to Mr. Dermody and Mr. Bradtke who had 23 and 15 points respectively.

Giving all he had for the Monogrammers was Denny Rybicki who led the lettermen with 9 points. Also in there fighting all the way were Joe Burzynski, Joe Allegrette, Ed Ziller, Ray Zipko, and Gene Mikolajczyk ■

Mr. Napierala displays his basketball prowess by driving past Gene Mikolajczyk for a faculty tally.

It's obvious the faculty was determined to win. Father Letko's spirit led to a 2-pointer.

The elbows in this picture belong to Coach Wilson, Ken Klekot, and Art Salzman, while Mr. Biel and Mr. Luketic look on.

Kathy Brock and Bill Murphy look forward to a delightful evening together.

Many people met here before the dance was over.

TURNABOUT --

A Holiday of Hearts

□ Leap year started in full swing as the annual Service Club Turnabout took place on January twenty-fourth. Every girl had a chance to ask that special fellow out for a royal evening.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Dorothy Devlin the Turnabout became one of the year's highlights, second only to the Junior-Senior Prom. General chairman was Pat Popa. In charge of bids and programs were Julie Lenz and Julia King. Decorations were the work of Donna Dankovis, Judy Wilczynski, and Anne Fajman.

The theme "Follow Your Heart" was displayed throughout the Bishop Noll Ballroom in the garden of hearts decoration which set the mood for the evening. Cupid was making the rounds as the couples danced dreamily to the music of the Johnny Nowlan Orchestra. The Grand March was led by Terri Kollada, Service Club President, and her escort Tom Slamkowski ■

Emotions dominate the last scene of the musical: Lady Thiang (Pat Facovelli) and Prince Chululonghorn (Joe Frechette) look on as Anna (Mary Vargo) comforts the dying King.

Oriental splendor sets scene for '63 musical.

☐ "Is a puzzlement!" sang Mike Liscinsky, as the King, as he pondered over the contrasts and conflicts brought to his oriental world by Anna (Mary Vargo) in the Bishop Noll production of the "King and I."

"Is a puzzlement!" repeated the directors (Sister Miriam Edward, Sister Christopher Marie, Sister Angelina, Mr. Demeduk) and the members of the cast and crew, as they struggled to create a world of barbaric oriental splendor out of split schedules, rehearsals in the convent basement, and carloads of hoopskirts and orchestra instruments transported to the Whiting Theatre.

Finally, "Is a puzzlement!" sighed an enraptured audience, marveling at the polished perfection of this very memorable moment in the musical history of Bishop Noll ■

☐ Fleeing from the formalities of his grandfather's court, Prince Karl Franz (Bill Marshall) journeys to Heidelberg, the famous University town. Here he is instructed by his kindly tutor, Dr. Engel (Mike Liscinsky). Despite the objections of his pompous valet, Lutz (Bob Brito), the Prince chooses to live at the Ruder Inn where he meets Ruder (Rich Knaver) and his fascinating daughter Kathie (Mary Vargo).

One morning Lutz is awakened suddenly by Karl Franz and the carousing students, who have been out all night celebrating at a peasant's wedding. As they enter the room, they are surprised at the announcement of the arrival of the Grand Duchess Anastasia (Kathy Schreier) and her daughter, Princess Margaret (Cynthia Kelly), who has been betrothed to Karl. This reoccurrence of court formality causes Karl to resolve never to go back to it. He tells his sweetheart Kathie to prepare to journey with him to Paris, but fate comes between them.

The Prime Minister (Bob Aguilar) arrives with the news that the old King is sick and desires to see the Prince. He must go but vows that he will return to Kathie.

The old king dies and Karl becomes King. After two years of mourning a ball is being given in the honor of his betrothal to the Princess. Toni (Mike Serafin) arrives to tell him that the Inn isn't doing well and that Dr. Engel has died. All this news brings back sweet memories of Kathie and Heidelberg. As he decides to go back to Kathie, we find that the Princess is persuading Kathie to give up the King so that she can keep her betrothal to him.

Finally Karl makes his decision to embrace nobility; he marries the Princess although he does not love her and Kathie bravely relinquishes her love for the King.

Even though dress rehearsals continue as the book goes to press, the play has all the marks of becoming a tremendous success ■

Playing the lead roles are Mary Vargo as Kathie and Bill Marshall as the Prince.

Cindy Kelley as Princess Margaret dances with Ken Klekot who plays Tarnitz.

"I thought you were dead!"

"What if Uncle Elwood brings Harvey tonight?"

"She was comin' along the path . . ."

□ Lights dimmed, voices hushed—the curtain went up on the first production in the new Bishop Noll auditorium. The play presented by the Senior class on the nights of December 6, 8, 13, and 15 was entitled "Harvey"—but Harvey himself never appeared on stage.

Harvey was an eight foot one-inch rabbit, but he was invisible to all but his dear friend, Elwood P. Dowd, played by Joe Kissela. Elwood's sister, Veta Louise (Karol Jackowski), fearing that he might frighten away potential suitors for her daughter Myrtle Mae (Patsy Nau), moved to have him committed to an institution. Dr. Sanderson, played by Mike Liscinsky, decided that Veta was the one to be locked up. Norb Balon as Dr. Chumley, the chief-of-staff, and Sheila Lentz as the nurse added to the confusion, which was resolved only when Dave Tomasula as a talkative cab driver showed that Elwood was all right—just the way he was. Sister M. Angeline was the business manager, while Sister Miriam Edward and Sister Christopher Marie directed this "fanciful first" for the new theatre ■

Retreat highlights spiritual activities.

□ Ample opportunity was presented to the student body to deepen its spirituality during the retreats held at various times during the school year.

Spiritual reading and conferences occupied a great deal of time, but prayer and meditation were not neglected. The students were encouraged to receive the sacraments in order that they might gain the plenary indulgences of the retreat.

For the boys, who made their retreat as a group, Mass was celebrated in the round in the field-house. The girls, who made their retreat by classes, attended Mass in the theater. An innovation this year for them was the Offertory Procession ■

□ Victory at homecoming, a rookie freshman football coach, a .500 baseball club, and the first swim team for Bishop Noll Institute made the 1963-1964 school year a time for new and exciting things. These, along with the wrestling matches, golf and track meets, and annual basketball sectionals, put the Noll student in a constant whirl of sports events ■

Quinnmen finish fast for 6-1-2 season.

❑ A tough schedule was in store for the Bishop Noll Warriors during the 1963 season.

Poor offensive technique resulted in a heartbreaking upset by Griffith, 19-7.

In the first game on our new field the Noll squad overpowered strong St. Mel's of Chicago by a score of 21-6.

A week later we squeezed by Hobart 7-6. Speedy Bill Marshall ran back a kick-off 80 yards with the help of a number of key blocks by some of his teammates.

Our next opponent was Gary Roosevelt. A few bad breaks forced the game into a 7-7 tie. An aerialist catch by end Ken Klekot was the main feat in determining a 13-0 victory over the Morton Governors ■

-- High 7, Noll 7!

Next was the homecoming game—one of the most thrilling and festive occasions of the season. This was a breathtaking 19-14 come-from-behind victory. Gary Mann's Horsemen were truly awed by Noll's second half prowess.

The following week our opponents were the Whiting Oilers. Our offense rallied early in the game, giving us an easy 25-6 victory.

Our next opponent was Hammond High which had a perfect season and a possible mythical state championship riding on the game. Mike McGill, our All-State candidate, contributed 6 points to the Noll cause. The kick by Ray Zipko was good—this tied the score 7-7. With one second left Ray Zipko booted the ball cleanly through the uprights—the decision of the referee was that the ball had not been signalled into play, thus nullifying the 3 points. So the game ended—a 7-7 tie, but there was no doubt in the minds of the Warriors that they had skinned the Cats.

Noll's finale was with Hammond Tech. Dave Tomasula's last minute interception and touchdown put the "finishing touches" on the Warriors' most successful season since 1955 ■

Future prospects high for Class of '66

□ With Coach George Wilson at the helm the Noll reserves worked their way through a dismal 1-6 record. Although the season doesn't indicate a bright future, there are actually some bright varsity prospects in several of the boys. Al LaReau and Ralph Micheli played outstanding ball.

Poor facilities during their freshman year and a series of opening losses left the team generally demoralized.

The only win came at the expense of the Hobart Brickies, 6-0. A pass from quarterback John Govert to end Al LaReau resulted in the 6-pointer.

Hammond Tech ruffled a few Warrior feathers when they won a squeaker from the reserves, 7-6 ■

Win-loss records are not always indicative of the true quality of a team. Such is the case of our Freshman football squad who throughout the season worked diligently toward victory. However, despite their sincere effort and hard work, they suffered defeat after defeat with their only win coming against the Brickies of Hobart. Constantly hammering the Brickies defense and taking advantage of a fumble on the Hobart 4 yard line, the team was able to emerge victorious. Playing a rough schedule the team never lost its spirit, drive, and determination to win. Despite their 1-6 record, we can say that this Freshman team has the potential of becoming a great team in the near future—a team Noll can be proud of.

The thirty-three young gridders who composed this squad were awarded numerals for their determination and fighting spirit which characterizes all teams of Bishop Noll. Coach Napierala and his hopefuls for next year, Tom Czechanski, Dennis Scheidt, Jesse Bravo, and Harold Pilatto and the other members of the Class of '67 have taken a serious attitude toward this sport. Any deficiency which they have in strength will be entirely overshadowed by their drive and desire to play and to win while representing Bishop Noll Institute ■

Hoopsters post 12-10 record.

□ Being displayed for the first time, the '64 edition of the Warriors of Coach John Dermody met the Tigers of Hammond Tech. The team came out with a satisfying 80-66 victory. Led by junior guard Jerry King, the Warriors were looking forward to one of their best seasons under Coach Dermody.

Leading by 13 points the first half, the team experienced a drought and lost 71-67 to South Bend St. Joe. Next in line for the Warriors was traditional rival Hammond Morton. During the halftime of this game the new Noll fieldhouse was dedicated. It was against the Governors that the one-two scoring punch of King and brawny gridiron fullback Mike McGill began to form as they hit 26 and 15 points respectively. As the gun sounded the scoreboard read 76-68 with Noll on top.

With the season progressing, the team had a 5-6 record. These six losses were by a grand total of 19 points. During the losing spell one of the most exciting games of the year was played. Top-ranked Gary Roosevelt invaded the Noll Fieldhouse and went away with their ego somewhat deflated. They barely got past the "bubblegum brigade" in a 55-50 thriller.

It looked as though the Warriors were in for a dismal year. As the record skidded to 5-8, Coach Dermody regrouped his forces for a respectable season record of 12-10.

Going into the sectionals the Warriors were riding high with a four game winning streak. With King hitting 32 and McGill 16, the team squeaked out a 76-71 victory against a determined Dyer Central team. That night we set our sights on the high-flying Tollestson Blue Raiders. As in the early season 54-52 loss, the team knew they had their work cut out for them. With 5,200 people jamming the Civic Center to watch the game, the true spirit of Hoosier hysteria broke out. Tollestson was leading throughout the game but with a sudden spurt the Warriors came within one point, 64-63, with 3:16 left in the game. The rally died. The Warriors fell 77-73. Tom Gross led the fine team effort with 24 points. Coach Dermody said after the game, "I couldn't ask anything more of my kids." It was a proud finish for a determined team.

One hundred seventy-five boys of the class of 1967 responded to Coach Napierala's call for basketball players. The freshmen completed the finest record of the Warrior Basketball teams. The season record of 12 - 5 shows hard work and fine coaching on the part of Mr. Napierala.

Three boys who have outstanding potential should be given special recognition. Dale Dust and Paul Tworowski, both playmaking guards, and Frank Toloky, a 6'1" center, were honored by being elevated to the B-team squad the last six games. Dust and Tworowski broke into the starting lineup and gave a needed boost to Coach Bradtke's crew.

Under the instruction of Mr. Napierala these boys have learned the fundamentals of basketball. Eagerness, growth, and experience will help the freshmen along in their future years. With continued improvement these boys will be good representatives of the upcoming Noll teams ■

Swimmers will improve on 10-4 record in '65.

□ Lack of experience failed to hamper our nascent swimming team. The tankmen of Coach Bill Busch demonstrated a fine spirit during the 1964 season. These swimmers, with their willingness to cooperate and willingness to work, gave our new pool the best dedication that could have been offered. Among the outstanding individual stars who helped compile a record of ten wins and four losses were Tom Witt and Tom Cieslak who swam the 200 meter freestyle. Also adding strength were Nick Nau 100 meter butterfly, Bill Baron 100 meter breaststroke, and John Lannigan diving.

The Buschmen only lost to well regarded teams such as T. F. South, T. F. North and Hammond High.

Prospects for 1965 look good since there were no seniors on the team. In addition, of course, is the valuable experience gained by this first swim team. An improved schedule, too, should make the poolsters plenty tough by the time the sectionals come around in February of '65 ■

Golfers post another successful season.

□ Tim Leslie, Rich Rocky, Joe Allegretti, and Tim Brogan led Noll's linksmen through one of their most successful seasons. The Warriors, under Coach Karl Huffine, posted a 14-4 record.

Noll finished second in the Hammond City Meet five strokes behind Hammond Tech's Tigers. Leslie led the turfmen at 76, with an amazing 33 on the back nine.

In the Dyer Invitational the Warriors came in fifth. Tim Leslie shot a 75, Joe Allegretti an 82, Tim Brogan 85, and Rich Rocky an 89.

A sixth in the golf sectionals held at Lake Hills was all the Warriors could manage, thus just missing qualification for the state finals at Indianapolis. Tim Leslie's medalist honors saved the otherwise disappointing day for the testers. It was the third consecutive year Leslie qualified for the finals; he was co-state champion in 1961.

While the Warriors will certainly miss Leslie, prospects for '64 are still very good. Joe Allegretti and Tim Brogan, both who score consistently in the low eighties, are returning ■ Trackmen show promise.

Bob Meisterling springs over the bar to amaze onlookers.

□ This year, as a result of the tremendous expansion of Bishop Noll, track has moved indoors. The trackmen now have facilities which they have never known before. Besides a 165 yard asphalt track, the fieldhouse contains a section for the high jump and shot put. Provisions for the pole vault weren't ready this year, but next year it should be included in the order of events.

"Gentlemen please" was a phrase heard by many hustling trackmen this year. It came from Mr. Richard Furjanic, who replaced Mr. John "Jake" Weger as track coach. Mr. Furjanic, a trackman himself in high school, wants our track team to break all the records in the state this year. He emphasizes relaxing as the key to winning meets.

Returning this year to lead Noll to the top are the following lettermen: Jim Schafer, Roman Klusas, Ron Sansone, Bill Marshall, Gerry Waechter, Bob Meisterling, Tom Ramirez, and Fred Adamczyk.

Sophomore Claude Brooms, a standout hurdler who is often called the "Warrior Flash", steps over hurdles in a time that can be surpassed by only a few high school students.

After three meets this year the track team seems to be very strong. With two wins and only one loss to Gary Roosevelt and Calumet, the outlook is very bright. The number of spectators in the balcony of Noll's fieldhouse further prove the success of the Warrior trackmen.

Jack Crawford shows that hurdling is not as easy as it seems.

Splendid facilities in track

Practice, which is held almost every day, consists of various exercises meant to further train and strengthen the team. To start out practice, the firm legs of the trackmen warm up by running a half mile. Then called to a particular area of the gym by their coach to do calisthenics, the trackmen stretch their muscles to gain endurance. They then scatter to work on their various fields, such as broad jump and hurdles. It is a rare occasion when the boys don't have to run at least three miles. But they practice with heart for the opportunity to bring glory to their school.

In the triangular meet between Noll, Clark, and East Chicago Washington, Noll showed itself to be superior in all respects. In the 440, John Bobalik, a frisky sprinter, led all the way for a stunning victory which left the two other teams dazed. Junior Dale Conger, with a spectacular throw of 45 feet 3 inches, broke the school record for the shot put set by Mike Graney a few years ago ■

Coach Bradtke in his second season as diamond coach hopes to bring the team over the .500 mark.

Diamond men struggle to .500 season.

□ The 1963 baseball team brings to mind memories of a rookie coach and .500 ball club. A no-hitter highlighted the season's first game. The combined pitching efforts of Dave Falda and Herb Rueth resulted in a 3-2 victory over Griffith.

In their second game, which was marred by 18 errors, the Noll squad edged Hammond Tech 8-7.

The aggressive nine then went into their third match with Herb Rueth on the mound against St. Mary's, Michigan City. Herb limited his opponents to 4 hits; Ray Zipko scored the first two runs, and the Warriors broke a 2-2 tie on a single by Ivan Zimmer.

With heads held high because of a 3-0 record, Noll clashed with the Whiting Oilers. Again Herb Rueth pitched, but it wasn't his day as the Oilers bombed him for 8 runs in the first 4 innings. The final score was 11-1 in favor of Whiting.

Going against Hammond High, the Nollites were caught by surprise as Hammond's powerhouse unleashed a 14 hit attack on three of our hurlers and beat us 12-3.

One of the main sparks of the season was our next game where small lefty Pat Chmiel pitched the Nollites to their second no-hitter. The final score was 3-0, on a run by an infield out with one aboard. Dave Falda brought one home, and Denny Rybicki drove home the third run on a triple in the seventh.

In the seventh game, Morton walloped us on our own field 8-0, which set the season record at 4-3.

We then journeyed to Hammond High and held the Wildcats to only 1 run which came in the fourth inning on three successive hits. This single run white-washed us 1-0.

Morton's second bid pushed Noll behind the .500 mark for the first time by beating us 3-2 at Morton, but a fast win at St. Mary's of Michigan City brought us back.

Then spirits sank as the Warriors lost a double header to Lafayette Jeff by scores of 7-3 and 12-1.

After beating the Red Devils of Michigan City, we were dumped again by Morton at Hessville Park ■

Prospects for '64 good.

With ten lettermen returning for the 1964 baseball season, prospects for Coach Bradtke's diamond team seem excellent. Returning are infielders Ivan Zimmer, Mike McGill, Bill Belanger, Tom Gross, John Semanick, Ed Ziller, Gene Mikolajczyk, and Dennis Rybicki.

Pitching will depend largely on returning, but non-letter winner, senior Tom Theil. Two juniors who will make a bid in the pitching department are Pete Skafish and Jerry King.

Ray Zipko is the only returning outfielder.

Juniors who will back up the returning lettermen are infielders James Fiegle, Ron Medrea, John Kerman, and Pete Skafish. Working in the outfield will be Jerry King and Bob Komara.

The 1964 schedule will remain the same as in 1963, but should see the Warriors improve on their .500 record ■

Participation

58C

□ In the 1963-1964 school year a number of organizations were offered to the students for the purpose of discovering and developing their hidden talents. As a result of their membership in these clubs, many students have been able to bring acclaim to themselves and their school ■

Honor Society headed by Crncich.

As stated in its constitution, the purpose of the National Honor Society is "to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate leadership, to develop character". The National Honor Society encourages a desire on the part of the students to render service to the school and the community. It causes the student to evaluate himself and to see if he has potential elements of leadership. It is a stimulus to the student to develop strong character and continue his education. It sets high standards for the academically talented high school student.

New members are inducted twice a year: after the first semester for new senior members and in May for new Junior members. Also in May a joint National Honor Society and Quill and Scroll Banquet is held to formally induct the members of both societies. At this banquet, to which parents are invited, the pins, which symbolize membership in these societies, are presented. These new members are chosen on the basis of interest, enthusiasm, and participation in school activities.

The emblem of the National Honor Society is a key-stone, upon which a flaming torch is superimposed. The keystone is a symbol of strength and perfection and because it fits smoothly and truly into the top of an arch and holds the structure together it is also the symbol of character. The flaming torch symbolizes the light of knowledge, which is to be carried into the darkness of ignorance to enlighten the shadowy places of the world.

At the base of the keystone are the letters C, S, L and S. These are the initials of the words Character, Service, Leadership, and Scholarship, which are the key words to the aims and hopes of every National Honor Society member.

Activities promoted by the organization during the course of the year are the Book Fair and Talent Show.

The club is also working on plans for a literary magazine for Bishop Noll Institute and plans for a resumption of the Great Books Discussion Group.

Officers elected for the 1963-1964 school year are President John Crncich, Vice-president Marilyn Gorlowski, Secretary Jane Ferro, and Treasurer Mike Chenore. Rapacz leads Quill and Scroll Society through banner year.

Encouraging interest, enkindling enthusiasm, recognizing and rewarding excellence in literary work are the purposes of the Quill and Scroll Society. Membership in this nationally recognized honorary society is earned by achievement on the staffs of the school publications, the JourNoll, the school newspaper, and the Marquette, the school yearbook.

Special projects that have come under the direction of the society this year have been the encouragement of participation by all classes in the annual Serra Club Essay Contest, and the stimulation of an interest in the theatre by the sale of tickets to such productions as "A Man for All Seasons" and "Camelot".

The officers of the Quill and Scroll elected by their fellow members are: President Ray Rapacz, Vice-president Pam Korak, Secretary Mary Ann Zwijack, and Treasurer Wally Kronland. Sister M. Georgia is the faculty sponsor ■

One representative from each homeroom and the elected officer from each class, together with a representative from each club, make up the Student Council of Bishop Noll Institute. Through the representatives, each student becomes an active participant in the administrative segment of school life. The Student Council aims to represent the entire student body, to integrate the relationship and activities of the faculty and students, and to maintain discipline.

This year, under the direction of Brother H. Dominic, F.S.C., the Student Council organized several committees which carried out various projects during the year. The Commendations Committee, headed by Camille Raczkowski and Fred Adamezyk, was organized for the purpose of granting honor certificates and special commendations to top Noll students. Nancy Raman was in charge of the Evaluation Committee, whose job it was to check on Student Council members to see if they were fulfilling the obligations of their position and carrying out their appointed activities correctly.

Some of the events put on this year were the Halloween Hootenanny-Sock Hop, Spring Dance, and the annual Field Day. A special project was Leadership Day on November 29, when approximately 150 delegates from Noll, Andrean, South Bend St. Joseph, and St. Mary's of Michigan City discussed such subjects as faculty-student relationships, Student Councils, and the image of the Catholic high school ■

□ For the purpose of promoting religious vocations to the priesthood and religious life within the student body the Brother Benildus Club was formed under the spiritual supervision of Brother K. Daniel, F.S.C. The members, spiritual-minded senior boys, promote attendance at daily mass and the reception of Holy Communion. Credit for the vocational literature available during retreats and the school year goes to the Benildus Club.

To understand more of the religious, married, and single states of life, senior girls have joined the Sigma Kappa Gamma. With Sister Miriam Edward, C.S.C., as sponsor and Mrs. LaMere as marriage counselor, the members attend mass and receive Holy Communion regularly. Also on their curriculum are monthly meetings and lectures. This club has done much to promote a good Catholic outlook towards vocations.

Promotion of the priestly and religious vocations through service characterizes the Knights of the Altar. Under the direction of Sister M. Francis de Sales, C.S.C., members assist the priest at daily mass at Saint Margaret Mary's Church and aid them throughout the year in special student body masses and retreats.

Student life would not be complete without these organizations which serve as stimuli to encourage Nollites to persevere in their vocations ■

Religious clubs broaden students' spiritual outlook.

Mission Club strives to meet new goals.

Officers of the Mission club are Kathy Thomas, co-prefect; Sister M. Angeline, faculty sponsor; Alvyra Jasaitis, class representative; Ivan Zimmer, co-prefect, and Ted Zager, treasurer.

□ Striving to enroll the entire student body in the Society for the Propagation of the Faith and to interest the students in its work is the desire of the Bishop Noll Mission Club. At their general meetings members often hear lectures by active missionaries, conduct discussions on missionary topics, and see movies or slides about the missions at home or abroad. Through their weekly bulletins members try to spread their interest and enthusiasm throughout the student body.

At Thanksgiving and Christmas, Mission Club members direct the students in the collection and distribution of food baskets and gaily-wrapped gifts of toys and clothing. Throughout the year the students are urged to give spiritual aid to the missions through their prayers. This year the Mission Club representatives offered a special prayer-participation at Mass with the reception of Holy Communion twice a month.

In all its material and spiritual aid, the club stresses the motivation for donations—the love of Christ through love of our neighbor.

Sister M. Angeline is faculty sponsor. The officers are Kathy Thomas and Ivan Zimmer, co-prefects; Mary Narvid, Ted Zager, and Cindy Burzinski, treasurers, and Denny Nowaczyk, Pat Popa, Charlie Palenik, Alvyra Jasaitis, Veronica Behl, and Tony Bonaventura, class representatives ■

Treasurer and secretary of Business Education Club are Lorene DiCento and Georgene Kochis.

With the up-to-date secretarial equipment now belonging to Noll, business education is playing an essential role in the lives of many upperclass girls. Under the competent direction of Sister M. Ivan, these girls are able to join the revised Business Education Club, formerly the Tri-Opus Club. Belonging to this club the girls attended informative lectures, tours, and activities.

Interesting lectures have been given to the girls at many of their bi-monthly meetings. Among the lecturers were Mrs. Terry Popa, president of the Women's Club; Mr. Paskey of the Royal-McBee Company, who can type 120 words a minute, and Sister Ivan herself.

Tours for the members to different companies and offices are sponsored by the club and offer a chance for the girls to become acquainted with the operation of modern office machinery.

Some activities held by the club were a splash party and a post-Lenten dance, the "Cuddle Cruise".

Continual improvement will be made annually and soon the Business Club will once again be one of the finest clubs at Noll ■

□ 1964—a new Publications Room in a new Noll, a new Marquette.

In April of 1963 the staff began to plan the upcoming yearbook. It was felt that the book had to somehow center on the school's new plant. The opening photographic essay, showing the academic and social life of the students, attempts to highlight these facilities and in a way new to the yearbook itself—through the use of a special paper and ink and a special photographic process of high fidelity reproduction. This is one of the new and distinctive features instituted by the staff under the direction of Mr. Ron Partyka.

Moving into our new plant was not an easy job, especially since we had grown by 500 students over last year—we the staff found putting out a yearbook a challenging task. Inspired by the themes of the book—Determination, Variation, Participation, and Appreciation—the 1964 Marquette staff was able to complete a bigger and better yearbook for Bishop Noll Institute ■

Transition heralded the start of this year's Publication Department. Moving into a new publications' program and beginning a new system of training, the JourNoll staff has successfully met the demands brought on by the new Noll Institute.

Sister M. Georgia, C.S.C., faculty advisor for the paper, continually stresses the JourNoll's responsibility to the students. Through the editorials, class columns, sports bulletins, and club activity information, students are kept well aware of the role they play in Noll affairs. Members gain the practical knowledge and experience so necessary for advancement in future professional fields of journalism.

Juniors assumed leadership at the beginning of the second semester. Editor-in-chief Susan Napierala and the rest of the senior staff relinquished their jobs to teach Margaret King and her new staff the techniques of journalism.

In his first year at Noll Mr. Edward Zabrocki directed the debaters to a very satisfying record.

Seasoned veteran Dennis Strevator proved a big factor in the debate team's success.

John Crnicich excels in oratorical declamation.

Debate officers are Michael Serafin, vice president; Margaret Ramker, treasurer, and Robert Cardis, president.

Debaters and artists bring culture to Noll.

Of the many organizations which have brought attention and acclaim to our school, the Debate Team has been among the leaders. Students who participate learn from experience and actual competition the fine qualities of public speaking and debate.

Mr. Edward Zabrocki, the faculty moderator for the debate team, is highly satisfied with the improvements shown by the participants and is very optimistic in his outlook for the future. Good reasons for his confidence were shown in the results of the Hobart meet, Hammond High Tri-state meet, and the Purdue Invitational meet. At the end of the second semester the Noll team will participate in the state finals, and, standing on its record, expects to place high in the extensive competition.

For the 1964-1965 school year the debate team is depending largely upon the experienced sophomores and juniors to carry on the Noll spirit in oratorical contests. As an additional aid, courses in debate and public speaking will be made part of the curriculum ■

Through the newly formed Art Club, the students of Bishop Noll are given a chance to develop their creative skill. Members, under the direction of Mrs. Grace Kovach, meet twice weekly. Some of their projects include first and second dimensional drawing, still life, and outdoor sketches.

Club members first showed their talent at a Woman's Club Assembly. They also made Christmas decorations for the school and linoleum block designs for Christmas cards.

Two outside exhibits attended by the club were the Chicago Northwest Art Show and the Fine Arts Exhibit at St. Joseph's College, Calumet Center.

There are many bright things in the future, among them moving into the new art room. Special emphasis will be given to working with ceramics, enamel, and papier-maché. An added feature will be slides concerned with Michaelangelo—his life and his work.

In these ways students are able to view the work of famous artists, bringing about a better understanding of their own work ■

Officers of the Art Club, sponsored by Mrs. Grace Kovach, are Tim Mehan, vice president; Marilyn Jastram, president, and Maria Alejos, secretary-treasurer.

French Club officers are Joe Kissela, Ivan Zimmer, Martin Kolina, Mary Vargo, and Tom Potraza.

French Club representatives are Jim Gajda and Kathy Fuss with faculty sponsor Sister Miriam Edward, C.S.C.

Linguistic clubs enrich culture

Under the sponsorship of Sister Miriam Edward, French students are able to enrich their knowledge of French culture and make a practical application of their special knowledge through the French Club. Trips to French restaurants and to French lectures are only a few activities which enable club members to enjoy and appreciate the French way of life. This year the club enjoyed a trip to a Chicago loop store to see an import display; members also visited the Chicago Museum of Science and Industry to see a program of French Christmas carols and customs.

The special project sponsored by the club is the annual French Club Show held this year on Feb. 6. Students from 22 neighboring schools were invited to the presentation entitled "Love Makes the World Go Round". The evening started with a traditional French dinner, served in the new Noll cafeteria transformed into a gaily decorated street cafe. Dinner was followed by entertainment in the auditorium—songs, dances, and scenes from French plays.

□ Under the sponsorship of Brother K. Amedy and Mr. Frank Macias, the newly formed Spanish Club's main objective is to give members practice in speaking Spanish fluently and correctly. The club also helps to further the knowledge of the culture and customs of the Spanish-speaking nations and to foster a greater interest in the Spanish language.

This year the students reviewed the Spanish Exhibition at the Muscum of Science and Industry in Chicago. Another main item on the agenda was the Christmas fiesta.

Officers elected this year are President Frank Garcia, Vice-president Donna Kryszak, and Secretary-treasurer Charlie Palenik.

Latin students, better known as the "Roman Youth Club", meet regularly to learn more about the Roman culture on which our civilization is based. Mrs. Kelly, Father Dominik, and Sister M. Victorine work in close contact with the officers Betsy Salzman, Anita Torok, Richard Sobolewski, and Mike Lengyel to organize various chapters of the club and develop a monthly theme which is later presented in the form of a skit.

Special events of the year included the trip to Latin Interest Day at Loyola University, the presentation of the movie "Quo Vadis?", and the Roman banquet and program in the spring ■

Service Club -- Noll's helping hand

□ When it was formed ten years ago, the Service Club was under the sponsorship of Father Alfred Junk. After Father's death, Mrs. Dorothy Devlin, the present moderator, was appointed sponsor of the club. Its patron, chosen at this time, is the Infant of Prague.

Composed of seniors girls elected by the faculty members, the Service Club began with the purpose of serving the faculty in the cafeteria. The club also was asked to serve at teas and breakfasts sponsored by the school.

As the school expanded, the original purpose of the club no longer existed due to the cafeteria catering service. Its new purpose is to act as Bishop Noll's usherettes and hostesses at various school events, and as aides to the administration.

Members of the Service Club have participated as gracious hostesses at College Night and at the Senior Class Play. They have also helped serve at activities such as the Football Banquet, Leadership Day, and the Mothers' Club Family Dinner. The annual Valentine Turnabout is sponsored by the Service Club.

Duties of the girls in the Service Club are varied and many, but their friendliness towards others and their willingness to serve is constant ■

Sherry Finneran and Randy Lendabarker swing and sway the Service Club Turnabout way.

Girls' Athletic Association reorganizes.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Janice Cook, the G.A.A. provides an opportunity for all high school girls to participate in a recreational activities program.

To become a member a girl must meet certain requirements. First she must participate energetically in the sports program and earn fifty points. After membership has been attained additional points may be gained for awards. To maintain this membership a girl must attend regular business meetings and engage actively in at least five organized activities per year.

Although the club is still in its infancy, it has bloomed considerably. This is due not only to the fine facilities, such as the beautiful field house and the Olympic-sized swimming pool, but also to the enthusiastic support of the girls. They eagerly participate in basketball, volleyball, modern-dancing, and swimming ■

With Mrs. Janice Cook, G.A.A. moderator, are officers Joan Magiera, vice-president; Mary Ann Luberta, president; Sherry Finneran, treasurer, and Georgene Horvath, secretary.

During after-school G.A.A. activities, Frances Engle and Barbara Corrigan practice modern dance positions.

Science clubs prepare members for

□ As its name implies, the Bi-Phy-Chem is a science club whose aims are to encourage scientific interests through science projects, science fairs, discussion groups, seminars, field trips, etc.

Activities of the Bi-Phy-Chem, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Mary Michielsen, are varied. A noteworthy meeting held last spring featured a seminar discussion of "Our Expanding Universe". In October a student panel discussed "Careers in the Sciences". Planned is a trip to the local oil research labs so that students may get some first-hand knowledge of what careers are available in science.

The Science Fair Committee promotes interest in and helps with the preparations for the annual Bishop Noll—Andrean Science Fair. In the Science Fair we have a spirit of friendly competition to further an already avid interest in some particular area of science.

□ First started in 1961 by Sister M. Victor and continuing under her sponsorship the Medical Careers Club provides many of the answers to the questions of those students interested in a career in medicine. Specific information and guidance relative to medical careers are given through speakers who are professionals in this field.

Club members also go on field trips to different hospitals and nursing schools, where the students may gain first-hand information about the duties and disciplines of this career. This year members enjoyed a trip to Loyola University and also to Cook County Hospital School of Nursing.

For Easter the girls each made a stuffed animal for children in hospitals and orphanages. They also collected numerous articles for the Thanksgiving Clothing Drive. The members are now working on a plan to raise funds for a scholarship for some deserving member who is in need of financial aid to further his desired profession in the medical field ■ school year.

□ According to the constitution of the Pythagorean Society, the purposes of the organization are to build interest in modern mathematics, to provide enrichment for the basic courses, to promote mathematical research, and to stimulate skill in mathematical communication.

Members hold meetings each Wednesday, at which they take part in discussions, demonstrations and research projects; open meetings are held once a month with members participating in sectional tournaments or interschool tournaments.

The major project this year was the Invitational Tournament for eighth grade students of 35 parishes. On January 18, approximately five hundred students assembled in the cafeteria to work, solving problems in both traditional and modern mathematics. To give the proper atmosphere, members decorated the cafeteria in plaster of Paris models of various mathematical shapes.

Through this contest the Pythagorean Society, under the sponsorship of Sister M. Faith and leadership of Walter Fisher, Linda Kotulski, Ken Cook, Susan Vrane, and Al LaReau, hopes to build an interest in mathematics at the grade school level and to build the future membership of the Bishop Noll Pythagorean Society ■

Guest speaker Sister Marie Imelda, C.S.C., explains math problems at the tournament.

□ As the school year of 1963 drew to a close, the members of the Pythagorean Society realized that no math club would be functioning in their Junior year. As a result, the Aftermaths was formed under the direction of Sister M. Angeline. Membership is open to all juniors maintaining a C average in math. Through active participation students are able to supplement as well as increase their knowledge of mathematics. Activities include discussions and demonstrations by members, as well as guest speakers on a variety of subjects in modern math.

A highlight of the year was a tour through the IBM Data Processing Center in Chicago where the students received a first-hand look at math principles applied to computers and every day life.

Officers elected for the 1963-64 school year were President Bill Murphy, Vice-president Pat Mund, Treasurer Tom Cieslak, Secretary Mary Alice Herod, and Sergeant-at-Arms Phil Kokandy ■

□ Under the leadership of Mr. John Quinn, the Monogram Club is made up of those boys who have won letters in sports and who have promised to live up to the Club's standards. Officers elected this year are President Ed Ziller, Vice-president Joe Burzynski, and Secretary-treasurer Denny Rybicki.

Monogram Club members encourage active participation in all athletic activities; they work with the Booster Club and the cheerleaders to promote enthusiastic attendance at athletic events. The members also serve as ushers at basketball games and at all school assemblies.

The lettermen are real "Warriors", for they fight to uphold the reputation of the school on the gridiron, the basketball court, and the baseball diamond; they uphold the honor of the school by displaying good sportsmanship on and off the playing field. They are concerned not only with winning, but also with how they played the game; not only with the honors of the game, but with honor itself ■

Booster Club—new ideas, new energy, new spirit

□ In the person of its new sponsor, Mrs. Carolann Biel, the Booster Club itself received a "boost" this year. With the new sponsor came new ideas, new energy, new spirit—and new organization. This year, for the first time, freshmen and sophomore students were granted admission; now it is truly representative of the entire school.

The club is organized on a homeroom basis, with each homeroom electing a representative to attend meetings and carry back important information about game times, bus schedules, location of cheering sections, and cheers to be used. They organize committees in the homerooms; they also channel student opinion on ways to increase school spirit.

Officers elected this year are Tom Miklusak, Art Salzman, and Janice Duracz ■

Warrior band drums

□ Our band facilities were properly broken in by our talented school musicians. Since late September these students have been tediously practicing music under the competent direction of Mr. Eugene Meltzer, who is assisted by Mr. Edward Zabrocki. Both have had much musical experience. Mr. Meltzer, who has a B.S. in music and was active in college orchestras, is currently directing and assisting another area band. Mr. Zabrocki, in addition to his other activities, helps the band director by working with the students who are just beginning their musical careers. Both instructors are highly encouraged by the performance of the band, and, with the arrival of new band equipment, expect full development of its present potential ability.

During the Christmas holidays the students were treated to a concert in the gymnasium. Plans for the future include several concerts for the entire student body, a marching band for football games, expansion of the basketball game pep band, and possibly, with the enthusiastic leadership of the directors, participation in the annual Northern Indiana Band and Orchestra Association ■

Choral Club provides entertainment through its programs and musicals.

■ In her first year as director of the Choral Club, Mrs. Dorothy Kopanda has successfully succeeded Mr. George Demeduk. Her expert training and background in the field of music has been a vital factor in the presentation of the fine choral programs throughout the school year.

Over three hundred students tried out for Choral Club membership in September. Eliminations resulted in a chorus of sixty-four girls and forty-one boys.

Adjustments necessary in a new school made it impossible for this year's choral to enter any contests. However, this has in no way impaired the spirit of the members. This is further proven by the work of the students themselves. Their never-ending perseverance shows forth in their musical endeavors as new songs take shape every Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday in the choral room. Students who find themselves within listening distance may be entertained by anything from "The Marseilles" or "Tonight" to the "Drinking Song" from the Student Prince.

Popular and traditional carols presented at the annual Christmas Program put all who heard them in the holiday spirit. The Parents' Clubs and student body were entertained by "O Holy Night", "Pablo the Reindeer", and others, among which was a selection from "Amahl and the Night Visitors".

The French Club Show proved to be another example of the fine performance of which the members are capable. Such scenes as the Hootenanny and the grand finale of "Love Makes the World Go Round" gave choral members a chance to bring an international spirit to Bishop Noll.

The Operetta has always been the highlight of the year. 1964 was no exception as the Student Prince made each performance an evening to be remembered by all.

As the school year drew to a close the Choral Club raised a "Song of Praise" at the dedication of the school in May. The program at graduation brought an end to a well-rounded year of distinguished performances ■

Appreciation

86C

□ Administrators, benefactors, teachers, students, counselors, student aides, secretaries, bookkeepers, cooks, dishwashers, and maintenance crews form a vital part of any school. Here are the people who fill these positions at our school. We're proud and appreciative of our new facilities and everyone that is a part of the new Bishop Noll Institute ■

Bishop's dreams now our high school.

☐ "Where there is charity there is God," is the motto on the coat of arms of Our Most Reverend Bishop, Andrew G. Grutka. Love of his fellowman based on a deep and sincere love of God is his guiding ideal.

True dedication to the honor and glory of God and the salvation of souls is evidenced in his fatherly concern for all persons in his diocese—from the very young to the very old. We, as students of Bishop Noll Institute, are especially grateful to our Bishop for his unceasing aid—his dreams are now our high school ■

Brother Conrad's spirit encourages students.

□ Since becoming Superintendent of Bishop Noll Institute two years ago, Brother I. Conrad, F.S.C., has become a special friend of every student in the school.

He became a Brother at the LaSalle Institute in Glencoe, Missouri on August 30, 1934; he was stationed in Texas, Missouri, and Minnesota, and served at St. Mel's High School in Chicago immediately before coming to Noll.

"There is no reason why Noll shouldn't be the best," said Brother, in his first interview for the school newspaper. He has put unflagging enthusiasm into the progress of the buildings and the advancement of the students to make Noll the best ■

Brother K. Daniel, F.S.C.,
Boys' Department Principal

Principals manifest interest in student welfare.

□ Brother K. Daniel, F.S.C., Boys' Principal, in his two years here, has helped to establish the traditions of the new Bishop Noll Institute. Brother's interest in the welfare of the students is exemplified in his sponsorship of the Benildus Club, a vocation-minded society for senior boys. Bishop Noll may boast in having Brother Daniel's personality reflected in tomorrow's manhood. With Brother's guidance we may be certain that Noll will attain new heights in the eyes of the region.

In her second year as Principal of the Girls' Department, Sister M. Alma Clare, C.S.C., has guided the school through the years marked with change. Her interest, her sincerity, her enthusiasm in school affairs has won her the highest esteem of students and parents alike. Constantly caring about her students, Sister evenly balances discipline with advice, to maintain, as did her predecessor Sister Cecile Marie, C.S.C., the ideas on which Bishop Noll Institute was founded, and upon which it will continue to function for years to come ■

Sister M. Alma Clare, C.S.C.,
Girls' Department Principal

Counselors engrossed in well-being of school.

□ Guiding young men and women into a gradual assumption of the responsibility and obligations of mature Christians has always been a tradition at Bishop Noll. With the expansion program here at Noll it is now possible to extend these services to a greater number of students.

The personnel is composed of the Reverend George Vrabely, spiritual director, Brother Howard Peter, F.S.C., counselor in the Boys' Division, and Sister M. Regina, C.S.C., counselor in the Girls' Division.

Group guidance as well as individual counseling is stressed by the Guidance Department. Such topics as "How to Study", "How to Prepare for and Take Exams", and "Your Career and Vocation in Life" occupy the daily one-half hour homeroom guidance periods. Individual counseling focuses on various questions, problems, or inquiries, whether personal, social, or academic.

Demonstrating their interest in the students, the guidance directors and their assistants are always available for consultations and interviews ■

Coach Weger, devoted teacher and coach, dies.

□ For a brief period Bishop Noll Institute was privileged to have known a devoted teacher and great coach, John Weger. In a sense, he came to be loved by both his fellow teachers and his pupils because of his genuine interest and his true, warm personality.

However, we will remember him most for instilling character and a love of sports into the boys with whom he worked. Through his endeavors Noll will have the largest indoor track in the state of Indiana.

All this and more was accomplished by a gentle and well-loved man, John Weger, who will ever be in the prayers of all Nollites ■

Parents' Clubs link home and school.

□ If attendance at the meetings is any measure of the success enjoyed by the Parents' Clubs, then these organizations are at the pinnacle of popularity. Under the leadership of Mr. Alex Miklusak and Mrs. Terry Popa, the clubs have caused a flourish of new members to attend and also brought back many inactive members.

Responsible also for the increased active membership is the great cooperation between the two organizations. This cooperation was shown in the joint meeting in January at which the membership filled the entire fieldhouse to listen to the program centered around the formal address given by Bishop Grutka. Following the meeting refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

The Men's Club enjoyed huge success in their many fund-raising events including the Smoker held in October, long famous as a traditional activity of all Bishop Noll fathers. Also favorites of Bishop Noll fathers and mothers are the Turkey Bingo at Thanksgiving time, the Joint Holiday Social, the Pancake Breakfast, and the Easter Ham Bingo.

The Women's Club has long been concerned with the activities of the Senior Class. This is shown in their help with the Senior Class picnic and Baccalaureate Breakfast.

The Parents' Clubs, besides offering great service to the school, promote a better understanding between parents and teachers ■

1964 MARQUETTE

HAMMOND BISHOP NOLL INSTITUTE

Working on the 1964 Marquette was an EXPERIENCE—one we'll never forget. We had fun, but we had problems too. We just couldn't get started—in fact we just couldn't get anything from anyone most of the time. We TRIED. Staff members disappeared. Copy disappeared. Pictures disappeared. Tables and chairs disappeared. Most of all TIME disappeared. We're shook. We're tired. We'll never be the same, but we'd like to try again. We'd like to do a better job—to improve our weaknesses—but there isn't TIME. We hope that everyone will like our book. Most of all we hope our Marquette, our NOLL, will grow and GROW and GROW.
